

Fundamental right to the cultural identity of indigenous peoples, configuration in accordance with international law and perspectives for its reception in Chile [El derecho fundamental a la identidad cultural de los pueblos indígenas, configuración conforme el derecho internacional y perspectivas de su recepción en Chile]

Peñañiel J.J.F.

We study the fundamental right to cultural identity of indigenous peoples recognized by the IACHR.

We review its legal nature, sources, and its standards in the precedents. Specially, we study how the Chilean Constitution can protect this right and we enunciate some perspectives of impact on Chilean domestic legislation. © 2020, Universidad de Talca.
